Mr. Sherman then took the floor on the case of General Ames, disclaiming any idea that his action in this case was in the least influenced by partisan considerations. The Senator from Delapartisan considerations. ware [Mr. Bayard] complained that the Republicans were only actuated by party considerations. What were the facts? The evidence was constantly here to show that the Republican Senators frequently divided on political ques-tions, but the record would show that the Democratic Senators always voted in a body on politiargue in favor of the eligibility of Gen. Ames.

Mr. Edmunds had no difficulty in agreeing with Mr. Sherman that he [Mr. S.] and those Senators who were acting with him were not guided by partisan considerations. This was certainly true, they were going to do an act which would do the Republican party a grea deal of harm, and in this they were showing how thoroughly unselfish and unpartisan they were. A friend at his elbow had just told him that it was no use to talk any more about this matter. No doubt of this. When he gave his vote in the Committee against General Ames, he felt satisfied then that the Committee would be overruled. The facts were just this: The Republican party was so strong in this chamber that Senators had made up their minds to act from personal considerations, and not let that great moral obstructionist, the Constitution o the United States, stand at all in their way. It is all very well to go on in this way, but soone or later some of us, particularly those who liv in doubtful States, will wake up to the fact that it is the last straw which breaks the camel's back. Mr. Trumbull then closed the debate in favor of the report of the Committee. The Vice President then announced that the question was on the resolution reported by the Committee on the Judiciary, as follows:

Resolved, That Adelbert Ames is not eligible as a Senator of the United States from Mississippi, to which position he has been elected.

Mr. Sumner moved to strike out the word not," and argued that the question was of the simplest nature. It was the intent of General Ames, and as to that intent there was no doubt of it, and that was all that was required. The debate was further continued by Messrs. Conkling, Howard, and Howe. The motion of Mr. Sumner was agreed to, by Messrs. Bayard, Carpenter, Casserly, Conkling, Davis, Edmunds, McCreery, Norton, Pratt, Schurz, Trumbull, and Vickers. Messrs. Boreman, Kellogg, Morton, and Sawyer, who would have voted in the affirmative, were paired with Messrs. Hamilton, of Maryland; Fowler, Stockton, and Thurman, who would have voted in the negative on Mr. Sumner's motion GENERAL AMES SWORN IN.

The resolution as amended declaring General A mes to be eligible was then adopted without a General Ames then came forward by request of the Vice President and took the oath of

AFFAIRS IN PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MD .-The Marlboro Gazette has the following

Fatal Casualty.—A respectable widow lady, residing at Hyattsville, in this county, has, under unusually affecting circumstances, lost her son, Lieutenant Lemuel Cohen, of the United States Navy. The deceased was attached to the national vessel sent to our newly acquired territory, Alaska. The object of the expedition being accomplished the ship home. expedition being accomplished, the ship, homeward-bound, put into San Francisco for supplies; between Alaska and the latter port a quarrel originated between the captain and crew, who vowed vengeance against their com-mander; accordingly, some of the hands having provided themselves with firearms, availed provided themselves with firearms, availed themselves of this opportunity to attempt the captain's life, but by a dire mischance the bullet intended for his quietus took effect on his lieutenant, and thus on returning from his long cruise, and within a few week's sail of home and kindred, fell one of the most promising officers in the service. Not wishing to obtrude on the sacred sorrow of a grief-stricken mother with additional inquiries, we cannot give the exact particulars of the occurrence. We presume the Navy Department is in full possession of the facts, and in due time will give them to the public.

The river had risen, and after crossing half way the horses refused to go further. The torrent foamed and roared, threatening to sweep the team and wagon away if they were not extricated, and in the darkness and confusion it was attempted to turn the and confusion it was attempted to turn the horses up stream, but the fatal pulling of the wrong rein brought destruction with it, and the horses, wagon, and the lovers were swept over a dam near at hand. The lovers may be supposed to have died in each others' arms. The horses were taken out alive next day. This is the second couple that have been drowned on the eve of their marriage in Plum river.

MR. COLFAX ON TEMPERANCE .- In a temperance speech in Philadelphia on Friday night, Vice President Colfax said that "this was the Vice President Colfax said that "this was the anxiversary of his connection with the temperance cause. Twenty-five years ago, when he was just reaching manhood, he assisted in the formation and installation of the officers of a division of the Sons of Temperance in the town where he then and now resides in Indiana. He was proud to say that he had from that day to this kept his pledge. He had found it during the twenty-five years to be a safeguard and talisman, and when the time came to him to be gathered to his fathers, he could say that he had his fathers, he could say that he h never in the days of his manhood tasted, touched or handled the intoxicating beverage."

A SAD APPAIR.—The wife of Rev. William McFarland, of the Methodist Episcopal Conference, late of Halltown, but at at this time visiting her parents near Duck creek, Del., rose from her bed some time on Wednesday night, and after wrapping up her child, with which she had been confined about a week, escaped through a window, and wandered off in the direction of Duke creek. She was found about 3 o'clock Thursday morning, thinly clad, lying 3 o'clock Thursday morning, thinly clad, lying against a log in a mill-race, in a state of un consciousness, and her lower limbs frozen to the bone. She was at once tenderly cared for, bu it is thought, cannot recover.

ADDRESS

tooteforeal Alasontia

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? De you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile ! Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spir its dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? I so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your kneed weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad the company of ladies, and look you and them hose who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions. but alse those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought bout that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce alost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Biuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long stand-ported from these sources, and the health and happinees, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 19 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 594 Broadway, New York, and 104 South 10th street, Philadelphia, Pa. PRICE-$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.
